

Itineraries for Florence, SC

Day Trips

For more info, please contact the
 Florence CVB
 holly.beaumier@visitflo.com
 843.664.0330

Taste of the South Day Trip

- 9:30am arrive at SC Tobacco Museum
- 10:30am tour sites in Mullins, including historic churches
- 11:45am southern buffet at O'Hara's Restaurant
- 1:45pm tour of the Columns Plantation, the only working plantation in the region. This stop includes afternoon tea on the porch.
- 3:30pm visit Young Pecans for a sampling of 12 flavors of pecans
- 5:30pm tour Red Bone Alley Restaurant and enjoy shrimp and grits, in addition to other southern delicacies
- 7:30pm depart / arrive at hotel

Lynches River County Park Student Day Trip

- 9:30am arrive at Lynches River County Park, explore the swinging bridges through the canopy, visit the weather reporting stations
- 10:30am Class-time (example for grade 2) What's the Weather? Students will use various tools to collect information about the current weather conditions. A make & take weather instrument is included.
- 11:30am boxed picnic lunch
- 12:15pm class-time continues
- 2:00pm depart

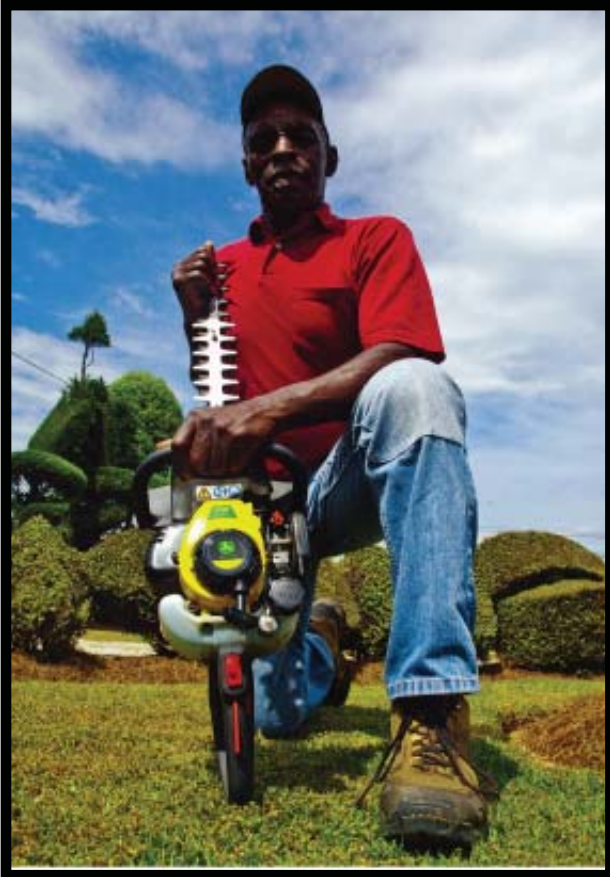

Artisans of the Cotton Trail Day Trip

- 9:00 am arrive at Pearl Fryar's Topiary Garden in Bishopville, meet self-taught artist Pearl Fryar (donation accepted, $3 pp recommended)
- 10:00 am depart following the SC Cotton Trail
- 10:30 am visit Patz Fowle, internationally known clay artist at work in her home studio ($3 pp)
- 11:30 am depart following the SC Cotton Trail to Hartsville
- 12:00 pm catered lunch at Black Creek Arts center in Hartsville ($10 pp)
- 12:45 pm acrylic painting workshop with award-winning artist Vicky McLain ($25 pp, minimum 15)
- 4:00 pm depart with your masterpiece in hand

Bishopville, SC

A small town with lots of characters

Located on I-20,
about 30 miles west
of I-95

In Bishopville, you'll find The Pearl Fryar Topiary Garden, The Button King and his museum, the largest boll weevil you'll ever encounter, Sassy the alpaca, coatamundi wiggling their tails... oh, and the legend of the Lizard Man abounds!

